

How does Jampoff work?

Many creative projects are fund raising on Jampoff at any given moment. Each project is independently created and crafted by the person behind it. The musicians, and artists, you see on Jampoff have complete control and responsibility over their projects. They spend weeks bulding their project pages, shooting their videos, and brainstorming what rewards to offer backers. When they're ready, creators launch their projects and share it with their community

Every project creator sets their project's funding goal and deadlines. If people like the projects, they can pledge money to make it happen. All backers' credit cards are charged when the time expires. Funding on Jampoff is Keep It All

Why do people back projects?

A lot of backers are rallying around their friends projects, some are supporting people they've long admired. Many are just inspire by a new idea. Others are inspired by a project's rewards – a copy of what's being made, a limited edition, or a custom experience related to the project.

Backing a project is more than just giving someone money, it's supporting their dream to create something that they want to see exist in the world.

Do backers get ownership or equity in the projects they fund?

No. Project creators keep 100% ownership of their work. Jampoff cannot be used to offer financial returns or equity, or to solicit loans.

Some projects that are funded on Jampoff may go on to make money. But backers are supporting projects to help them come to life, not financially profit.

Can Jampoff be used to fund anything?

We allow creative projects in the Worlds of Music and Dance.

Everything on Jampoff must be a project. A project must have a clear goal, like making an album, a song, or a video. A project will eventually be completed, and something will be produced by it.

Jampoff does not allow charity, cause, or “fund my life” projects. check our our Project guidelines for details.

Who is responsible for completing a project as promised?

It is the project creator’s responsibility to complete their project. Jampoff is not involved in the development of the projects themselves.

Jampoff does not guarantee or investigate a creator’s ability to complete their project. On Jampoff backers ultimately decide the validity and worthiness of a project by whether they decide to fund it.

Funding on Jampoff is Keep It All.

Which means even if your project does not reach it's goals, we still release the money raised. However it is your responsibility to fulfil the rewards for backers or come in to agreement of an alternative with the backer, if the reward cannot be awarded. If the reward cannot be awarded and agreement with the backer cannot be reached it is your responsibility to refund the backer.

How does Jampoff make money?

When the project comes to an end, Jampoff applies a 10% fee when the projects funds comes to an end. The pledges will be processed by Stripe, we will be applying PayPal shortly. Theses payment processing fees work out roughly to 3-5%. View the fee breakdowns.
